RIGHTS CATALOGUE FOR BELGIAN FRENCH-WRITING AUTHORS

André-Marcel
Adamek

Born in 1946, he lives on the fringes of official circles. Characteristic of his writing is the importance of nature, the creation of amazing characters and the great variety of styles and narrative genres. He has won numerous prizes in both France and Belgium.

Leaving a cave he had been visiting, Anton Malek, an expert in wolf behaviour, discovers a world devastated by a cataclysm. He sets off, westwards, towards the sea, and encounters people whose behaviour is more inhuman than that of wolves. As a result of one encounter, however, some kind of hope begins to develop.
