Yun Sun Limet

Born in Seoul, in South Korea. Having lived for a long time in Belgium she now lives in Paris.

'Les Candidats', her first novel, won her the 'Prix de la première œuvre de la Communauté française de Belgique'.

'Les candidats' tells the story of an impossible adoption. Jean and Marie's parents are killed in a car crash. The couple had however made provision in their will in the event of their untimely death. They ask that their friends take in and bring up their two children. Caught between the desire to carry out their final wishes, the grieving family's hostility and their own apprehension at the prospect of upheavals in their affective lives, the four families lend their voices to this sober and sensitive novel.
